“ Jeff was one of my best friends as we were growing up in Bellmore, N.Y. We hung out all the time. Played baseball, basketball, football and stick ball together. As we got older and started to drive, we would go to record stores every week to pick up the latest and greatest new albums and even some classic rock albums. Then we'd go out to lunch and get pizza at Monte's or Stella's, My Pie or Pizzeria Uno. We'd go to the Tuesday evening Coffee House in Malverne to hang out with friends and have a good time. We would also go to Speak's in Island Park to try to pick up some "chicks" but that didn't work out so well cause we were both very shy. I was always the designated driver because I didn't drink and still don't to this day. I didn't know Lori all that well but if she was with Jeff for over 30 years, she must have been a Saint. I'll miss them both very much. Rest In Peace Jeff & Lori.
